

Aaron L. DeRouen

6211 Wildlife Way, Baytown, TX 77523

derouenaaron@gmail.com

713-816-8010

Objective: To apply my mechanical skills and fast learning ability towards my future as a commercial pilot.

Work Experience:

INEOS Olefins and Polymers – December 2019 - Present

Process Operator

- Monitor equipment to ensure the quality, efficiency, and safety of the process.
- Responsible for safe operations, maintenance, and troubleshooting of equipment and instruments.
- Communicate ideas with unit team members for continuous improvement of the process.
- Proper verbal and written shift relief to help eliminate miscommunication.

Ascend Performance Materials – September 2018 – November 2019

Process Operator

- Load/unload tank trucks, in rail cars. Making sure all documentation is correct.
- Monitor equipment to ensure the quality, efficiency, and safety of the process.
- Responsible for safe operations, maintenance, and troubleshooting of equipment and instruments.
- Communicate ideas with unit team members for continuous improvement of the process.
- Proper verbal and written shift relief to help eliminate miscommunication.

Kelly Scientific Resources – February 2016 – September 2018

Laboratory Technician

- Conducted analysis on process stream and finished production material.
- Recorded data analysis into sample manager software.
- Troubleshooted lab equipment when necessary.

Eurecat U.S. Inc – November 2012 – May 2014

Laboratory Technician

- Conducted physical test on and regenerated and spent catalyst.
- Performed carbon sulfur testing using a LECO analyzer.
- Recorded lab results inside an Excel spreadsheet.

Education:

- Bachelor of Science in Information Technology (Present)
Liberty University, Lynchburg, VA
- Associates of Applied Science in Process Technology (12/2017)
San Jacinto Community College, Pasadena, TX

